Notification of Sale of Shares Held by Untraceable Shareholders

Dai Nippon Printing Co., Ltd. (DNP) announced today that its Board of Directors, at a meeting held on November 10, 2016, decided to sell shares held by untraceable shareholders pursuant to Article 197, Paragraph 1, of the Companies Act, in order to streamline stock-related administrative matters.

1. List of shareholders owning shares for sale

Concerning the shareholders who own shares subject to sale, pursuant to Article 198 of the Companies Act, DNP will provide electronic public notice of their shareholder numbers, names, and addresses and numbers of shares held as recorded in the shareholder register on the DNP website (http://www.dnp.co.jp/ir/index_kk.html) on November 16, 2016.

Note: "Untraceable shareholders" are shareholders to whom DNP has not been able to deliver notices and demands sent to their addresses as recorded in the shareholder register for five consecutive years or more, and who have not received dividends for five consecutive years.

2. Schedule

November 16, 2016	Notice and demand for statement of objection related to sale of shares held by untraceable shareholders
February 17, 2017	Deadline for statement of objection from untraceable shareholders
From February 18, 2017	Sale of shares held by untraceable shareholders

Note: DNP plans to purchase the shares held by untraceable shareholders as treasury stock after completing the statutory notice and demand procedures related to the share sale and after the notification period ends.

3. Contact

Shareholders listed in the public notice should contact the shareholder register administrator listed below for any inquiries about this matter.
